

Fact Sheet – Rondellus

Band name : Rondellus

Musical style : Medieval and renaissance music. Black Sabbath songs played on medieval instruments and sung in Latin.

Hometown : Tallinn, Estonia (Europe).

Current CD : “Sabbatum”

Members/Instruments :

Maria Staak : vocals, hurdy-gurdy, organistrum

Robert Staak : lute, frame drum

Veikko Kiiver : vocals, organistrum

Miriam Andersén : vocals, gothic harp

Tõnu Jõesaar : fiddle

Record Label : Beg the Bug Records

Points of note : Rondellus has 4 albums to their credit. Their current release “Sabbatum“ is a collection of Black Sabbath classic songs reworked in the true spirit of the middle ages.

Rondellus has an extensive history of touring and playing live. They have performed numerous concerts in the Baltic States, Scandinavia, Poland, Hungary, Germany, Italy, France, Spain and Switzerland.

“Sabbatum” was recorded at the Tallinn Merchant Guild, one of the oldest buildings in the medieval part of the city. From 1802 it houses the Estonian History Museum.

Contact : Beg The Bug Records
Pronksi 7/9 – 56
10124 Tallinn, Estonia
phone: + 372 50 888 09
e-mail: info@begthebug.com